ACCLAIMED MUSICIAN, LYLE HADLOCK, WILL PERFORM THE INAUGURAL HOPE FOR TOMORROW CHRISTMAS CONCERT AT THE NUSKIN INNOVATION CENTER ON DECEMBER 6TH, 2014 TO BENEFIT THE UTAH FOOD & CARE COALITION.

On Saturday, December 6th, local musician, Lyle Hadlock presents a festive night of inspiring music. The "HOPE for Tomorrow" concert will showcase the generosity and supreme talent our community has to officer. This Christmas benefit concert will support the mission of the Food & Care Coalition.

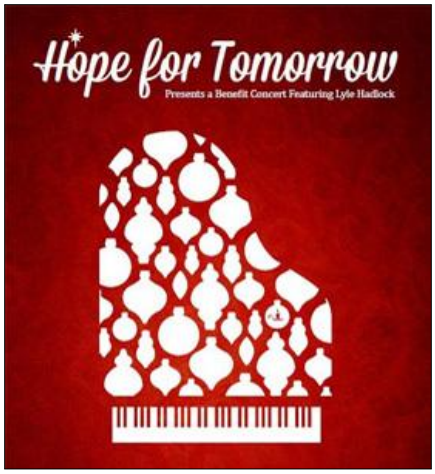

Lyle Hadlock and a host of local top tier performers will share their musical talents in this 90 minute concert and ignite the holiday spirit within.

Hand crafted HOPE chests donated by local builders will also be available for auction. Hope chests will be on display at the Food & Care coalition (299 East 900 South, Provo) from mid-November through December 5th and then moved to the NuSkin Innovation Center for the night of the event. Silent auction bids will be taken from November 18th until the end of the concert on December 6th.

Proceeds will benefit the Food & Care Coalition, which serves the homeless and low-income of Utah Valley. The mission of the Food & Care Coalition is to alleviate hunger and diminish the plights of poverty for those who enter our doors. Our primary objectives include finding suitable housing, teaching financial accountability, facilitating an elevation in personal morals and values, and helping each patron achieve their full potential.

Tickets are now on sale and can be purchased through the Food & Care Coalition's web site:
